Re: NOEL BROWN V. CITY OF NEW YORK, ET AL.
18 CIV. 3287 (JPO) (HBP)

Your Honor:

AND NOW, Comes Plaintiff and Pro Se, NOEL BROWN, on this 21st day of March 2019. I swear and affirm the following facts to be true.

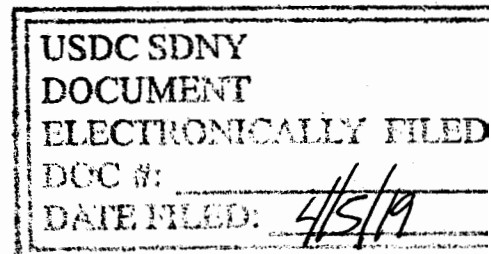

Defendants City of New York, officer Kempinski, officer Li, falsely arrested plaintiff on September 6th 2015. For alleged VTL offense, plaintiff was Tried and Acquitted of the VTL offense. The VTL traffic stop of plaintiff occurred plainly lacking Probable Cause.

Accordingly defendants request for A (STAY) of this matter is frivolous, and should no longer be considered.

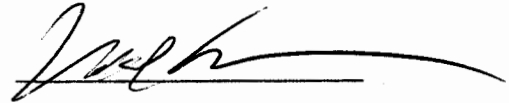

The subsequent alleged two counts of criminal possession of a weapon, in the second degree occurred after the plaintiff was in custody at the 5th precinct. Plaintiff believes a stay of this matter is warranted pending the disposition of that alleged criminal matter.

With the Courts approval, Captain Firsov, and various conditions of confinement claims against the City of New York Department of corrections. Plaintiff believes a stay of this matter is (Not) applicable or necessary.

The aggravated taking of plaintiff motorcycle, and reckless operation of a motor vehicle in violation of New York traffic Law and the loss of control of the vehicle spun out and was forced to ditch the vehicle, intentional or not. NYC officer Kempinski, instead of waiting for a tow truck to pick up the vehicle, which is department policy. The officers decided to drive back to the command themselves. Plaintiff believes a stay of this matter is (Not) necessary. Accordingly defendant request for a stay, should (Not) be considered in this matter.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,
